Introduction

With a host of new challenges and responsibilities to tackle, managers need training like never before. Learning how to manage employees on a trial and error basis can lead to discouragement. This five-day workshop will help you teach participants how to overcome many of the problems any manager may encounter.

Objectives

By the end of this course practitioners shall learn to:

- Clarify the scope and nature of a managerial position.
- Learn some ways to deal with the challenges of the role.
- Recognize the responsibilities you have as a manager, to yourself, your team, and your organization.
- Learn key techniques to help you plan and prioritize effectively.
- Acquire a basic understanding of leadership, team building, communication, and motivation, and what part they play in effective supervision.
- Develop strategies for motivating your team, giving feedback, and resolving conflict.

Who Should Attend?

Managers, Supervisors and Team Leaders, as well as newly promoted Senior Staff and those being prepared for promotion into a supervisory role.
